

Women's March for Dignity: Paid Sick Days for All!

Saturday, March 8, 2014 | 12 Noon
International Women's Day
Montpelier

We're marking International Women's Day by celebrating dignity and the strength of our sisters, mothers, daughters, partners, and grandchildren. From its beginning, March 8th has been about women organizing to demonstrate our essential – but so often denied – roles in the economy. Women are the majority of workers in low-wage industries, and jobs that are part-time or temporary. These jobs tend to lack paid sick days.

Meeting point for the march: Christ Episcopal Church at 64 State Street. A community speakout and celebration will follow the march at Christ Episcopal. The Burlington Solidarity Singers and Brass Balagan will provide music!
