

The Time
To Save
Your Job
Is NOW!

The very existence of this hospital is in danger. Its re-designation would mean the loss of dozens of seasoned mental health care workers, much like Vermont experienced after Hurricane Irene.

A proposal to privatize VPCH and send your job to UVMMC is on the table right now, and it would:

- Re-designate VPCH as a secure-residential facility with significantly fewer staff positions; and
- Transfer VPCH's Level I beds to a new, UVMMC-owned facility.
